

Project: Low temperature binding system for refractory bricks which demand high temperature of firing (INTOCOLD)

Development of an innovative binding system which will allow manufacture refractory firebricks without heat treatment, reducing drastically energy demand during their production, as well as their carbon footprint.

Project will cover the investigation of low-temperature binding system and necessary reactions during brick heating to reach a fully stable lining on service.

PROJECT GRANTED BY

EUROPEAN UNION

European Regional Development Fund

